

ABM Janitorial Services Awarded Contract Renewal with Midwest Generation

SAN FRANCISCO – July 29, 2005 – ABM Janitorial Services, an operating unit of ABM Industries Incorporated (NYSE:ABM), has been awarded a multi-year, multi-million dollar contract renewal with Midwest Generation, a subsidiary of the Edison Mission Group and one of the nation's largest energy producers. The contract covers comprehensive janitorial service and maintenance for three power-generating facilities located in Illinois.

“We are pleased to continue working with Midwest Generation, an organization dedicated to the reliable and safe production of electricity, and deeply committed to safeguarding the environment,” said Jim McClure, president of ABM Janitorial Services. “Through our cost-effective standardized cleaning and safety programs, we look forward to maintaining the cleanliness and appearance of these vitally important energy facilities,” he added.

Midwest Generation is one the largest independent power producers in the United States, producing enough electricity to meet the needs of more than 8 million households. Headquartered in downtown Chicago, Midwest Generation is a subsidiary of the Edison Mission Group and part of the Edison International family of companies, which is based in Rosemead, California. Primarily in the business of generating electricity for sale in the competitive wholesale market, the company owns and operates six electric power-generating facilities in Illinois and also supervises operation of a plant in western Pennsylvania. These facilities can generate 7,500 megawatts of electricity and employ about 1,500 personnel.

ABM Janitorial Services operates 111 branch offices in 42 states, the District of Columbia and one Canadian province.

ABM Industries Incorporated is among the largest facility services contractors listed on the New York Stock Exchange. With fiscal 2004 revenues in excess of $2.4 billion and more than 73,000 employees, ABM provides janitorial, parking, security, engineering and lighting services for thousands of commercial, industrial, institutional and retail facilities in hundreds of cities across the United States and British Columbia, Canada. The ABM Family of Services includes ABM Janitorial; Ampco System Parking; ABM Security Services, which includes American Commercial Security Services (ACSS) and Security Services of America (SSA); ABM Facility Services; ABM Engineering; and Amtech Lighting Services.
